What will the best students be able to do/understand by the end of the topic:

You will be able to understand in speech and writing a text of approximately 100 words describing part time jobs using three tenses and the conditional.

You will be able to translate such a text into English to demonstrate a firm understanding. You will demonstrate a competent understanding of the formation of present, perfect, future and some imperfect tenses, and the conditional and be able to distinguish between them in both reading and listening to enable them to have a full and accurate understanding of a text.

You should be able to express yourself orally and in writing to talk about jobs, ambitions and work experience, giving and justifying opinions. You should be able to write a formal letter of application using at least three tenses, time sequencers, a variety of connectives using correct word order, um... zu and the conditional in the context of their own current and future language learning experience/ambition. You should be able to write accurately a text of at least 90 words and translate sentences into German with correct verb usage, word order and spelling of common vocabulary.
